

“Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed”, Jesus tells us in the Gospel today, “and nothing hidden that will not become known”. May our stewardship of God’s gifts entrusted to us be such that we would not be ashamed if it were seen in the clear light of day.

2005 Year of the Eucharist

The Eucharist makes the risen Christ constantly present: Christ Who continues to give Himself to us, calling us to participate in the banquet of His Body and His Blood. From this full communion with Him comes every other element of the life of the Church, in the first place the communion among the faithful, the commitment to proclaim and give witness to the Gospel, the ardor of charity towards all, especially towards the poor and the smallest.

Pope Benedict XVI

The Gabriel Project is in need of diapers (all sizes,

Come Join Us

Join a group of men and women for a weekend of presentations, group discussions, private consultations and prayer to find out what it’s like to be a Catholic priest, sister or brother, to see whether you might have a vocation to religious life and to learn how to respond to that calling.

The program will explore the rewards and the obligations that go with religious life. It does not pressure anyone nor ask for any commitment. It is designed to help you make a more intelligent choice of your vocation, whatever it might be.

Life Awareness, a Religious Vocation weekend for single adults, ages 18 to 45 will be held July 15-17 at Holy Name Retreat Center in Houston. For more information contact Kevin Gardner, 713-402-5804.
Registration forms are available in the parish office.
